EXTREMELY RARE TWO-HEADED RED SLIDER TURTLE NOW AT BIG AL'S AQUARIUM SUPERCENTER

Birth of One-In-A-Million "Siamese" Turtle Featured at Philadelphia's Largest Aquatic Superstore

East Norriton, PA – Big Al's Aquarium Supercenter, the Philadelphia area's largest aquatic superstore, announced today the addition of an extremely rare two-headed red slider turtle to its reptile family. The one-in-a million "Siamese" turtle has four front legs, 2 back legs and a combined tail. The reptile, which is yet to be named, will be on display daily at Big Al's Aquarium Supercenter located 2876 DeKalb Pike in East Norriton, a northern suburb of Philadelphia at the intersection of Route 202 and Germantown Pike (2 miles from the Plymouth Meeting Mall).

Another big attraction at Big Al's is a 12-foot round, 11-foot tall, 5000 gallon Shark Tank with weekly feedings of Indonesian Black Tip sharks every Tuesday night at 7:00 p.m. The aquarium superstore also includes a 17-foot waterfall made of 9 pallets of real stone and features water cascades flowing out of giant clam shells.

Big Al's is the Philadelphia area's largest aquarium superstore and aquatic attraction, with more than 350 exotic aquariums and weekly shark feedings. Just minutes from downtown, the 11,000-square-foot facility offers the first time hobbyist and ultimate aquatic specialist the largest selection of aquariums, aquarium furniture and supplies, as well as an extensive variety of marine fish, live corals, goldfish and tropical fish – more than 20,000 fish in 700 species. The superstore also offers a wide variety of reptiles.
